- Motion to accept PTA meeting minutes from November 14
- Give back to military completed, considering doing it again for recently deployed troops
- 5th grade Tshirts were given out
- Square 1 art was sent home
- Sportswear delivered before holiday break, thanks to Toni Ann, may do spring sale
- Thanks to Jen and Jill for their work on Holiday Boutique
- Gingerbread Night went well, may make earlier date for next year for larger turnout
- PTA gifted books to prior to holiday break

New Business

- SRO January 29-30, cast party January 31
- Sees Chocolate fundraiser possibility
- very booked on events for PARP week
- Boosterthon fundraising event, kids get sponsors per lap run

Treasurer's Report:

- doing better than at this point last year on fundraising, Monster Mash raised more than expected, but not as well on Gingerbread Night due to lack of turnout, picture day raised more than last year, as did Holiday boutique
- Membership isn't as high because of technical difficulties at open house

5th grade legacy project- considering painted rocks
