

I. Call Meeting to Order- Pledge of Allegiance

II. Welcome

III. Principal's Report

Artist mural- student built platform, "beautify dramatic" as the theming. Actual theming to be chosen by students and staff. Artist does these student built murals professionally. Discussions on fixing/painting over older murals and having a new painting on the café walls. ALECS assessments finished. Available online to review. iReady is complete and should be posted by Friday. Math assembly Solve it Cyrus on Friday. Kids enjoyed watching and performing in the Return of the Glass Slipper last week, the 5th grade play. Online survey for the students is still going on. Unsure when field will be formally opening, kids want it and are asking about it. On non-muddy days kids are allowed to use the field. We have 6 new Chromebooks- they have been used for coding.

IV. President's report-

- WRS Big Read- Kids are reading. Share your pictures of you reading with #WRSBigRead #Disney #Magicalstorytelling.
- Sportswear- expect deliveries in approximately 2 weeks. Will be sent home with students.
- Need for Spring chairs (Someone Special Dance 5/10, 5th Grade Graduation 6/24, 5th Grade End of Year Celebration TBD)

V. Treasurer's report- On budget for expenses and fundraising. SRO funding complete.

VI. Additional Business

- Jacob Leggio, student speaker – Jacob, 4 grader, has idea for a club. Kids with Capes making molds of crayons for children's hospital from broken crayons, soap for homeless shelters, treats for animal shelter, etc. Mrs. Tephenthart suggested a kick off event to start. Mr. Parniello asked what event were you thinking of starting. Jacob wants to focus on actually creating items and feel the joy of working to help someone. Maybe doing it during PARP or Big Read.
